

Graduation Address by Sarah Juranek:

I believe. A statement that can be turned into a question: I believe we will get our diplomas? A statement that can define who you are: I believe in God the Father Almighty. A statement that fuels our determination to move forward: I believe that today will be a good day. "I believe" two little words that can change your outlook on anything that can come your way. If you believe that good will come from something then that belief turns into the faith that everything happens for a reason. Our high school careers happened how they should have happened. Some losses still sting and some triumphs we still feel the rush from, but none of it happened without a higher purpose. Every joy and loss was a part of a bigger plan, and I believe that plan was to bring us together, shaping us into the family that we are today.

I believe that our time together is the best thing to ever happen to us. We have grown together, learned so much not just from our teachers but from one another. When we fight we fight with the love of siblings, we support one another and I know that anyone on this stage would have my back. I know that I speak for all of us when I say if any of us would ever need anything, someone would be there to help them out.

I believe that some thank you's are in order. Thank you to the teachers; you have taught us to be kind and forgiving. The people on this stage are your handiwork. Thank you for molding us into model citizens and into the people that you have always believed us to be. Thank you to our parents for pushing us to be better, for holding us when we cried after losses or the bitterness of high school drama. Thank you for loving us unconditionally. And most importantly, I want to thank God, for placing us where we are. For giving us our talents and blessing us with the opportunities to grow in knowledge, faith and to change the world.

I believe that our talents, knowledge, faith, compassion and love are the tools we will use to change the world. I once heard that as graduates we all have a little bit of "I want to change the world" in us. And isn't it time for the world to change? As Catholics we must stand against the culture of death that surrounds us. We must be advocates striving for goodness, striving for personal holiness, striving to be the light, shining in a darkened world. When I look at my classmates I see that light. I see the courage and the goodness the world needs. I believe that we can make a difference. A better world. As a class we can accomplish anything and with God guiding us on our journeys, anything is possible. He gives us strength, and that is all we need.

With our graduation we embark on the world shaping it into the place that we will live in, our children will live in and all those that come after will live in. Make the changes you want to see. This life is too short to settle for just good enough. In all the millions of years that this planet has been around, in the eyes of God that is still considered "short" so why should we settle for a just good enough home? Pope Benedict once said, "The world offers you comfort, but you were not meant for comfort. You were made for greatness." So go out, live the life that God has planned for you, cherish the little moments, dream big. Don't be afraid to make mistakes, and mess up so long as you are moving forward with the love of God in your hearts and the fearlessness that only His children possess.

Move forward with the courage that only comes from knowing who you are. You are strong. You are capable. You are kind and honest and trustworthy, but that's just on the good days. Even on bad days when you feel rough around the edges and not quite good enough, you are still loved. You are loved by everyone here with us today and most importantly you are loved by Him.

It is very likely that nothing I say up here today will be remembered in a week or even by tomorrow morning as we open graduation gifts while eating left-over cake for breakfast. But, please please remember this, your identity is not where you come from, it is not the events that make your life, it is not the people you love. Your identity is a son or daughter of God, but who you are as a person is how you make yourself to be. Do not let your life be defined by the bad days or those little moments where something didn't turn out quite right. Instead find the courage to move forward knowing that those things do not define you. You define you. As St. John Paul the Great once said, "We are not the sum of our weakness and frailness, we are the sum of the Father's love for us, and our real capacity to become the image of his Son, Jesus."

We have come a long ways since Ms. Rachel's preschool class, but all of it, we have done together. Tomorrow is the first day that we no longer have an obligation to one another because we no longer walk the halls together, share a lunch period, cram for the same tests or create new memories together. But what we do have is the time that we have spent, the memories we have created and the happiness that we have shared. So while we will no longer be moving into the future as a whole, I believe that we still walk together. Though we may no longer be hand in hand, we are heart to heart. Forever engraved into the very livelihood of one another. We have changed. We have grown. We know where we have been and I believe that we will continue on with the knowledge that what we have here is good, and we have what it takes to make the world a better place.

Dates to Remember.....

June, 2018

Dear Parents,

The schedule below shows the various camps and activities that we offer our students during the summer. We are fortunate to have the facilities and dedicated staff to make these opportunities available.

We want you to know that taking time for a vacation with the family is also very important. Just looking at this schedule, we see how difficult it may be to simply find the time. We would encourage you to spend quality time with your family whenever you can. Discuss this with your family and find the dates that are best for you. Our coaches and moderator look forward to the opportunity to spend time with their family. You should do the same. The coach will understand. You may not be able to make every activity, but you may never have this opportunity for the family vacation again.

2018 Annual Aquinas Fine Arts Salad Luncheon:

A special thank you to all who contributed to the Annual Aquinas Fine Arts Salad Luncheon with your salad or your financial donation. Special thanks go to Julie Humlicek for designing the flyer, Joe Humlicek for hanging the sign, Karen Shonka for fielding all of my questions and helping with anything that was needed, Laura Adair for helping with promotions, Vickie Donoghue for the decorations, Ann Heermann for help with the cookbooks, Cathie Mimick for her willingness to be here early to accept food and to help facilitate the students to get the job done. To Helen Ostdiek for helping set up, clean up and facilitating the students, the Kitchen Ladies including Kathy Meysenberg, Kathy Boss and Erin Marushak for all their help with sandwiches, washing dishes and just helping get the food out on time. Thank you to Scott and Mary Buresh for the rolls, Coren Pflum for the beautiful bouquet for the raffle, Bank of the Valley for printing the placemats and Jisa Cheese for their donations of cheese. To the middle school students who helped set up the gym and the students who helped serve and clean up. Without the workers for the day, this would not have been possible. Thank you again to Tricia Andel, Lisa Schultz, Dolly Stara, Lori Aschoff, Roni Jakub, Charmyn Kment-Chromy, Lori Wessling, Nancy Vrbka, Sharon DeWispelare and Carm Fiala for all you did to make this day run as smooth as possible. I cannot express my thanks enough.

Nancy J. Humlicek

Thank you from the Junior Class:

Prom 2018, "Starry Night," was a huge success. This year was a bit interesting, but so many people worked so hard to make sure that this year's Prom was enjoyable for our students, despite the weather. This was due to so many who helped the Junior Class put on a Prom to help send off the seniors into the next stage of their lives. We would like to say thank you to all who helped:

Thank you to Ted Cech, who put up and took down the tent in the gym.

Thank you to Kent Birkel, who helped make the lattice wall.

Thank you to Small Town Blooms, who allowed us to use items from their shop in our decorations.

Thank you to ALL who brought in Christmas lights for us to use.

Thank you to Ann Heermann and Mark Masur, who allowed us to use items from the Drama Department and the Shop in our decorating.

Thank you to Grace Moravec, last year's Queen, and Fadhili Mwkiza, last year's King, for coming back and helping crown this year's King and Queen.

Thank you to Heston Meysenburg and Cecilia Lyons who were this year's crown bearers.

Thank you to the Junior Class Officers' parents and the Sophomore servers, who made the Prom meal run so smoothly.

Thank you to all the parents who helped chaperone the dance, and plan and chaperone the post-Prom activities.

Presidential Academic Achievement Award comes from the office of President of the United States and the Department of Education to honor students who are transitioning schools (5th graders) who have made great growth in their academic progress. These students made strong increases in their core subjects of Math and Language: Cale DeWispelare, Miriam Frasher, Sydney Hartman, and Marcus Krivanek

Presidential Academic Excellence Award also comes from the office of the President of the United States and the Department of Education to honor students who are transitioning schools (5th graders) who have shown consistent academic success. These students have worked hard to maintain high grades at

Citizenship Award. The federal Department of Education also provides awards for students demonstrating strong Citizenship in the areas of leadership, service, manners, and community support.

These students have gone above and beyond to help anyone when needed and to be positive leaders for their school: Jacksen Jelinek, Isabella Kadavy, Brooklyn Stutzman, and Garrett White

Ainsley Wollmer, 4th Grade, won 2nd place.

Congratulations to these students for putting God's gifts to work in their lives for the benefit of their families, our school, and our community. We will continue to look for great contributions in your future, too!

God Bless.

Dear 2019 Seniors and Parents of 2019 Seniors,

Next year your son/daughter will be a senior. One of the most lasting and treasured reminders of this year will be the senior pictures which will be taken over the summer or the first part of the school year. You will be responsible for getting the following senior pictures to Mrs. Pokorny by November 1, 2017:

You need to have your photographer email your colored formal pose picture in a vertical billfold sized JPEG file at 250 dpi to me for the yearbook, composite, alumni board, press releases, and class video. This picture should be the colored formal indoor pose with a plain background. (This should be a head shot with no hands visible please.) You are responsible for making sure the school has this by November 1st. They may email this to Mrs. Pokorny at teresa-pokorny@cdolinc.net

If we do not have your prints by November 1st, you may miss out on being in the composite, yearbook, etc. or have to pay for the late fee to be included. Be sure to schedule for your pictures to be taken by September 1st.

As we at Aquinas should always strive to live up to Christ's example of modesty and Christian decency, we ask that no inappropriate pictures be submitted for publication. This would include:

Females-no off-the-shoulder dresses or blouses

Females-no tops with an immodest/low cut; no spaghetti or thin straps on shoulders for dresses or blouses

Males-wear a collared shirt and tie. (A jacket is preferred but optional.)

Nothing that goes against the current dress code, for example-tattoo/body piercing, hair length, facial hair, etc.

*Remember that by a colored formal pose, we are asking for a head shot with no hands visible in the picture. The background should be plain/one color and NO outdoor shots.

Again, remember to have your photographer email your colored formal vertical pose picture in a billfold sized JPEG file at 250 dpi to Mrs. Pokorny by November 1st.

The administration reserves the right to refuse any portrait deemed unacceptable or immodest. Please read and follow the instructions we have provided and there should be no problems.

If you don't plan to have senior pictures taken, an option for a picture to be used for the composite is to follow the attire guidelines listed above and wear that for the picture taken for your student ID at the beginning of the school year. Ms. Brown is also willing to take a formal head shot picture, but this must be arranged with her before November.

If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Pokorny at 367-3175.

Best wishes and have an enjoyable summer.

Sincerely,

Teresa Pokorny

Senior Class Moderator
